Affiliate Membership Categories

Educational Institution Affiliate Members

Educational Institution Affiliate Members include individual departments of universities and colleges located in Pennsylvania that are not eligible for provider agency membership and are not involved in the direct provision, consultation, development or management of children, youth and family services. The educational institutions may be private nonprofit or for profit entities and include state related/supported entities.

The educational institution department members will experience mutually beneficial relationships and opportunities with PCCYFS Provider and other Affiliate Members. A single point of contact within the membership department must be designated to act as recipient for materials and information generated by PCCYFS.

Supporting Partner Affiliate Members

Supporting Partner Affiliate Members include organizations that provide training, technical assistance, advocacy, prevention education and/or public awareness in Pennsylvania. Supporting Partner Affiliate Members may be private nonprofit or for profit entities which are not involved in the direct provision, development or management of children, youth and family services. A single point of contact within the Supporting Partner Affiliate Member must be designated to act as recipient for materials and information generated by PCCYFS.

Vendor Affiliate Members

Vendor Affiliate Members include businesses and corporations operating in Pennsylvania that are supportive of the work of PCCYFS and its Members. Vendor Affiliate Members are for profit entities that are not involved in the direct provision, development, or management of children, youth and family services. Vendor Affiliate Members may attend meetings, serve on workgroups, act in advisory capacities and promote the priorities of PCCYFS. A single point of contact must be designated within the Vendor Affiliate Member to act as recipient for materials and information generated by PCCYFS.
